50 YEAR CLASS CHALLENGE!

The Class of 1966 hereby challenges the Class of 1967 to have more members attend the reunion than it did! To date, we have had the highest attendance at a reunion. Can you beat us? We'll see come June 3rd!!

GREETINGS FROM SUNNY PHONEIX, ARIZONA!

Does anyone else remember the words to that little ditty we used to sing on "Move-Up Day?" You know, the one that goes,

Where oh where are the Pea Green Freshmen/Safe at last in the Sophomore Class!

Where or where are the Stately Seniors/Lost, Lost in the Wide, Wide World!

As unbelievable as it seems, my classmates and I have been "Lost, Lost in the Wide, Wide World" for 50 YEARS already! Since a 50th High School Reunion is such a momentous occasion, my wife and I are excitedly looking forward to coming back to New York for this gala event in June (part of the excitement is because my good friend, Lee Allen, tells me he always has a great time when he attends!) Preparatory to our trip, I decided to make a few withdrawals from my Memory Bank, including such items as:

- Roger Barrows always referring to John Beattie as "Big John," in tribute to Jimmy Dean's hit of the same name!
- Calling Greg Gilbert "Mole" because he lived underground in the basement of the house his father was building them for a couple of years.
- Barb Benoit telling us about a babysitting assignment she had. Responding to horrific howls coming from the bathroom, she ran in just in time to see the family Chihuahua being flushed down the toilet, while the little girl she was in charge of was standing there, waving and saying, "bye bye Tiny!"
- Ed Bennett occasionally "popping out" his partial plate, which he acquired compliments of a horse kicking out his front teeth.
- After purchasing an Electron Microscope, Mr. Zimmerman excitedly asking as he displayed a cross section of a plant, "Can you see the pith?" and Walt Sutliff answering, "Yeth, thir!"
- Ann Castle gleaning photos of THE BEACH BOYS from every magazine she could find!
- At an overnight campout on Hadley Heights, Lew Chase taking his Lettermen's Jacket off and giving it to me for the night because I was cold.
- Connie Dunn having chicken pox-like blotches on her face after doing hand-stand push-up with Buddy Edwards because the blood had rushed to her head.
- Pete Grobecker running up all of the Washington Monument steps on our Senior Trip to the nation's capital.
- Barb Mudge, Beth Merton, and Suzanne Marcoux excelling in their business classes, and being lauded for doing so by their Business teacher, Mrs. Pencil
  ("Pencil"- what a great name for a typing teacher!)

Looking forward to, and excited about, seeing you all this June!
